

Tricks of the Trade

a portfolio of talent

Philip DePalo

Biography

Philip has been juggling since he was nine years old. When he turned sixteen, he decided to make a career out of making people laugh. Since then he has honed his technical skills while polishing the presentation. His background includes improvisational, musical and physical theatre including stunt work with the Society of American Fight Directors.

A graduate of the University of Maryland, he continues to study with world renowned jugglers, Broadway actors and Cirque du Soleil performers.